

SCNA 2024 Elections

The SCNA election ballots will open September 19, 2024, and close October 3, 2024

For this election that is for officers of SCNA and officers of the SCNA Chapters all members of SCNA/ANA or SCNA Only will be eligible to vote for all offices for which they qualify according to information below.

For A List of Candidates and Other Annual Meeting Information go to <https://www.scnurses.org/page/SCNA2024Candidates>

In order to vote in the 2024 SCNA Election you must be a current member as of June 1, 2024, and meet the membership requirements for licensure found in the current SCNA and ANA Bylaws. June 1st was established based on the election beginning September 19, 2024. The election process of SCNA requires each eligible voter to be a member in good standing at least two (2) full months from the 1st of the month prior to the month the election is held.

A list of current members, as of June 1, 2024, will be published on the SCNA website prior to the first day of balloting. It is up to the individual members to validate the information and to contact the SCNA staff during regular business hours (as stated on the website) prior to voting if the member believes that he/she was omitted from the voting list in error so that a correction can be made. Any SCNA members in good standing may present evidence that there is an error in the list of current members prior to the voting and up to the closing of the election. Failure to notify SCNA of an error in the voting list prior to the closing of the vote is considered a waiver of the member's right to challenge the voting list or the election. Failure to notify SCNA that the member is not on the voting list prior to the closing of the vote is considered a waiver of the individual's right to challenge the voting list or the election. ■
